Introduction

God's Army Mobilizing is a conscription vehicle for DISCIPLES who are called to march in the Lord's Last Day Army as they make all His enemies a footstool. Our emphasis is on training soldiers who can "endure hardship" as opposed to staying mere citizens of The Kingdom and known only as a BELIEVER. Faithful warriors are the ones who will end up as the mighty men who sit at the King's table when He reigns in glory. Therefore, all our content is aimed at imprinting military values and techniques on those who sign up.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

We are delighted to offer you our second edition of the GAM Newsletter, presented with an emphasis on the nation Nigeria.

Nigeria has been at a crossroads for many years. We are at a transition point that will determine the direction in which the nation will go. The Lord told us in April 2022 to join in birthing a new Nigeria, and also has told us numerous times that our ministry group was not enough for the accomplishing of the task. We hereby invite you to join us and peek into a tiny fraction of what God has shared with us.

All of us have played a part, especially the church, in destroying our nation. Here is a little of what we can do to heal it. We must take our eyes off others as the ones culpable for the sorrows in our land, and look to heaven for direction. For if MY people,... seek My face and TURN from their evil ways,...I will heal their land. 2 Chron.7:14.

If we will consistently obey the instructions of the Lord, we will find great hope in the new season.

Editor in Chief.

TESTIMONY

HEROD'S YEAST: THE DEMON OF POLITICS

...I saw a vision of a small and stout-looking demon come out from me and stand before me. It had a gavel in its hand and hung a shawl coloured 'green-white-green' (like the Nigerian flag) around its neck. It looked at me with such great rage that I averted my eyes from it. As soon as I could get a grip of myself, I ignored the vision and rushed to the restroom to throw up. To my shock, the colour of the vomit was 'green-white-green'!

Early Training

My father was very interested in politics and governmental affairs. He was a civil servant, but later he resigned to go fully into politics and won an election as a Local Government Chairman.

Our home ran mostly on his terms, so he made us do whatever he felt was the right thing to do per time. And because we had to be obedient, we had to do whatever he said. One of such obligations was to gather as soon as it was 9pm, for National News. We had to do this almost every day, no matter how sleepy we were.

While we watched these news broadcasts, he'd run commentaries and express his sentiments regarding changes in government and policies. He'd rage and hold hateful positions about these changes, regarding the major tribes in Nigeria and our minority Annang Ethnic Group.

Those "9 PM News Moments" were our only common ground as a family, and we were keenly indoctrinated to despise most tribes (especially the Ibibios, and the Igbos by extension). I was taught to hate them, while maintaining, as much as possible, a superficial relationship with them.

We were not to marry them or have anything serious to do with them. I remember, while I was in the University, most of us from Akwa-Ibom stayed within our tribal lines. I think our parents did such great jobs at indoctrinating us and ensuring that we stayed divided! The Ibibios insisted that an Annang man could never become a governor of the state, and the Annangs would fight back with daring words and dispositions. We took these things so personally that we would mock each other and say mean things against the other side.

When Mr. Godswill Akpabio, an Annang man, coasted to victory as Governor of Akwa Ibom State in 2007, I went to my Ibibio friends at the time, with a bottle of brandy to sarcastically celebrate. This angered them so much that we have not been in good terms since that day! I grew up with these erroneous concepts, and I loved to express them. I gathered facts (however false they were), and was always ready to dish them out.

The above are my earliest memories of this 'defilement'. Until sometime in 2019, I knew nothing about "the Yeast of Herod". I came to understand that the Yeast of Herod is the leaven of politics. Jesus warned about it in Mark 8:15... It is a partisan spirit that doesn't seek the will of God concerning matters of alignment; with groups or government; it is fuelled by selfish ambition, lies, division, and hatred.

The Bitter Root Grew

I didn't learn from my father to hate the Hausas and Fulanis, maybe because he had lived in the North. He believed that they were a better group of people, compared to the Igbo and Yorubas.

My deep-seated disdain for the Hausas/Fulanis started from my regular contacts with various news blogs, especially on Twitter, Facebook and a church group to which I belonged. They usually spread news that demonised the Hausas/Fulanis. The church group added "scriptural backing" to support their hateful position and to emphasise the rage and anger that they taught. I learnt later on that such behaviour (especially in the church) is unscriptural, and does not reflect God's will.

When I was appointed the youth leader of that church group, I would organise night prayers (before the 2015 general elections) for our people to pray against the presidency of General Buhari (at the time). There was a prophetic word given in the church where it was prophesied that he was not to rule Nigeria. So, we leveraged on that (under the claim of praying according to God's will), and prayed vehemently against the advent of President Buhari's government. My friend, Margaret, told me that they had prayed in her church group (God's Lighthouse), and received prophetic words that were contrary to ours – to the effect that President Buhari would win the elections. I immediately disregarded what she said, and continued my fasting and prayers against the "evil Fulani man".

My hatred for the government increased exponentially after President Buhari won. Instead of questioning the misleading prophecy that fuelled my prayer points, I went on to hate the newly constituted government, accusing it of running on a stolen mandate. How foolish!

I remember visiting Akwa Ibom State from Lagos, shortly after the elections. I met with Margaret at the University of Uyo, and our conversation resulted in an argument. It was a very intense and bitter argument. Then, she shared a prophetic word that she had received for me: "You're not going to get any benefits from this government if you continue in this hatred of its existence." She tried to get me to repent, but I ignored her. It was supposed to be a happy visit, but the disagreement ended it, and I left very sad. My tongue had a terribly bitter taste, which I could not understand.

I was already very consumed by my hate for the government and was actively praying against the government. My former church group went as far as organising conferences, in liaison with as many leaders of diverse Christian congregations as possible, in an attempt to sensitise Christians to 'pray out' the government and institute what they believed was "God's will".

How My Deliverance Began

When I finally came to God's Lighthouse, the Pastor preached against abusing the government, and insisted on the need to pray for those in authority. The highlight for me during this season was when he asked that prayers be offered for the rehabilitation of Ikpa Road in Uyo, which had multiple potholes. It was the part of the road near the University, by the junction, which we had to pass through on our way to church meetings. Rather than curse the government for not fixing the roads, the Pastor told us to pray that the road be fixed. That Wednesday evening, the prayer took less than thirty seconds, but I couldn't pray; my heart wasn't right. I didn't believe in praying for the government, so I just stood there, moping at others in discontent as they prayed.

To my amazement, as I drove through the road to attend the next meeting on Friday, all the potholes were filled! Although this did not overhaul my prejudice against government, it was a major turning point for me. I left that meeting determined to attend as many meetings as I could, hoping to learn a few more things.

Yet, my bias against President Buhari's Government remained intact. Somewhere in my heart, I still found reasons to hate his 'regime', and I struggled with it. I believe that for this reason, my Pastor didn't stop speaking the truth about our disposition towards the civil government.

People who were in the church meetings during that season may recall that those sermons against the 'yeast of Herod' went on for weeks. Each time I showed up for a meeting, the Holy Spirit (who loves me deeply) would divinely nudge the Pastor to start talking about the subject. Every time! My Pastor would drift from whatever topic he was teaching from the Bible, and talk about this 'yeast'. Of course, he had no clue about what was happening or who the message was for. He simply yielded to the leading of the Spirit. I am very grateful that the Lord kept 'leaving the ninety-nine' to rescue me from that strong bondage.

Following these meetings, I witnessed an interesting change in my thinking. I forced myself to pray for and bless the government, as well as the nation. I would feel a bitter taste in my mouth whenever I tried to pray, and it almost discouraged me. Any time I wanted to pray for the country in obedience to Scriptures, negative and hateful headlines and comments would come to my mind. The Holy Spirit later drew my attention to the fact that my lingering bias against the government was largely due to my continued interactions online.

Fruits Worthy of Repentance

1) I Left All Fake News Platforms

I had active Twitter and Facebook accounts where I would bash the government from time to time and congregate with people who shared similar sentiments. Talk of 'bad company'! Through these accounts, I had access to tons of fake news websites, Facebook pages, and Twitter handles that I would read through and interact with for several hours. In this process, the information I received would effectively fuel my rage.

One of the things my Pastor had instructed us to do was to stay away from false news and social media in general. It was because these media were the major doorways to most of the yeast that was spread across the nation, teaching people to be sentimentally partisan. I practised the little obedience that I could and got off Twitter. I deleted the Twitter app from my phone and disconnected my Facebook account from all news websites and pages. This brought a lot of peace to my life. I was no longer obliged to respond to silly posts, tweets, and baseless criticisms against the government.

2) I Practised Obedience

I did a lot of repentance in private as I kept listening to my Pastor's messages and tried to repent about anything the Holy Spirit would point out to me through them. This was a humbling experience, and I often felt rather foolish obeying the Scriptures; I still struggled with my opinions. My attitude generally was, "If it is commanded in Scripture, I have to obey, regardless of how I feel." It was so difficult, but God helped me.

My Deliverance!

After we returned from the Youth Prophetic Conference held in Jos (August 2019), my Pastor continued with his warnings about speaking against the government. These sermons simply wouldn't end! At this point, I had come to a place of acknowledgement.

During one of the Bible study meetings, Pastor was at it again, rebuking and teaching against the abuse of government, and I started to feel rigour in my legs. The sensation intensified as the sermon went on. I tried to stay calm and in control, but I was losing it! I felt a fever rush through me. I also began to sweat profusely. I had a pounding headache and severe nausea. I felt really sick, in the space of about 5 to 10 minutes. Although I tried to look calm and collected in my seat, I was partially knocked out and could barely keep it together.

Then, I saw a vision of a small and stout-looking demon come out from me and stand before me. It had a gavel in its hand and hung a shawl coloured 'green-white-green' (like the Nigerian flag) around its neck. It looked at me with such great rage that I averted my eyes from it. I saw it head furiously in the direction of my Pastor at the lectern. As soon as I could get a grip of myself, I ignored the vision and rushed to the restroom to throw up.

To my shock, the colour of the vomit was 'green-white-green'! It was the same bitter taste that I felt on the day I had that argument with sister Margaret. I remembered it because it was clearly brought to mind while I was in the restroom. No coincidences there! This episode left me very weak and sick. I could not stand for a long time, I couldn't sit upright and much later, I couldn't drive back home. I didn't know what had happened to me, because I had almost no understanding at the time.

What I know for sure is that after the episode, I felt lighter when I recovered. I started feeling unusual compassion for the President. My Pastor had added me to a group on WhatsApp where good news was shared about developmental strides in the government and across the nation (the Issachar Group). Though I used to read the information on the group, I still chose to live in self-denial. I didn't want to believe that all the good things posted on the group were true. But after the episode, I would read and enjoy the achievements of this government, and even offer thanksgiving from time to time. Since then, I have not found it in me to speak ill of the government or post anything negative, because I obeyed and was delivered!

I have been completely freed from the Yeast of Herod, and for this, I am very grateful to God. I should add that I have gone on to reap so many benefits and favours from this government in my business than I ever have in other regimes; God kept His word to me as I repented and obeyed. Praise be to God!

SEEDING THE JUNGLE:

Keys to a New Nigeria

May 5th, 2022

THE COBWEBS

When we were thanking God, I saw a vision of a clean room. Cobwebs appeared in the windows and doors, then they turned into ropes that covered the windows and the doors. These cobwebs were created by ingratitude. This seemed to be a major thing that was affecting our lives.

THE COURIER ANGEL

As we kept praying and thanking God for Nigeria, I saw an angel that came with a package from God, it looked like a treasure chest but it was locked. It seemed the more we sang, the key was forming in front of us. Then I saw Pastor put the key into the chest, and the chest was opened. I heard the angel call it the “seeds of joy”. This is what gratitude and thanksgiving unlocks – joy!

THE EVIL FOREST

I saw an evil forest. I got the understanding that the trees represented bitterness, discontentment, and envy. These were major trees planted in our country. I saw an angel spread the seeds of joy across the forest. The seeds went into the soil and choked the roots of the trees, sapping them of nutrients. The more the angels did that, the more the seeds of joy would grow, choke the bad trees, and contribute to the growth of the people, as well as to their faith in God.

TEACHING

HOW TO ~~KILL~~ SAVE A COUNTRY

Some ask, "Is it prayer that changed other countries?!" The answer actually is often, Yes! Ignorance of the role of the church in the history of nations is common among most humans. I will however add that prayer may not do everything, but prayer began and influenced many things.

First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all those who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. This is good, and it pleases God our Savior, who wants everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. (1 Timothy 2:1-4)

What Can We Do?

When you are faced with situations that you can affect, do something. But when you are faced with things that you cannot change, what do you do?

Can you build a road, or dig a reservoir and provide water for a whole community? You probably can't afford to.

But can you pray it into being? Yes! So, it is prayer that helped other countries. People prayed (possibly for years), and God gave them good leaders.

Why Should We Pray?

It is God's will that we pray for our rulers, as the Scripture states. It doesn't have to be a "City Wide Solemn Assembly." God simply desires that we pray in every way we know. In your rooms, in your homes, pray: "Father, we bless Nigeria..."

Everyone must submit to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are instituted by God. So then, the one who resists the authority is opposing God's command, and those who oppose it will bring judgment on themselves. (Romans 13:1-2)

Relating With Governmental Authorities

Let's look at Jesus as an example. During His time, Rome ruled, but we never saw Him speak against them. Why? Rome was appointed to rule by God. (See Dan 2:29-35). He spoke against the actions of the people and their religious leaders who led them astray. He also called Herod a fox, because that was the spiritual symbol for what he was – cunning and tricky. That was all.

Jesus instructed the people to submit to the authorities. (See Mat 5:41; 22:21). He said, “If you are told to carry a load for one mile, go two miles.” You may ask, “Shouldn't we fight for our rights?” But Jesus did not lead a revolution against Rome, and neither did the apostles.

Secession is NOT the Answer!

Christians who support schisms as a practice don't know God's nature. We are supposed to fight dissension, (see Gal 5:26, Pro 10:12) and not cause it! Such division is not of God; it is a work of the flesh. If your country splits, bad things typically happen. There will be bloodshed, pain and death. You will give account to God for contributing to violence, death, and loss.

If we start splitting along ethnic lines, we won't stop splitting into smaller and smaller units.

TEACHING

Proper Prayer Procedure: The Missing Condiments

Animals don't have the sort of sentient brains we have, but they give God praise! The Scriptures tell us this (Daniel 3:57-59, Psalm 148). The God who made all things deserves praise.

He made all things and for his pleasure they are and were created. Let your lips give praise to the King – the sacrifice of praise, the fruit of your lips giving thanks to His name (Hebrews 13:15). You cannot give God praise except from a pure heart. Judah (meaning 'Praise') was to go first (Judges 1:1-2).

The 4 Condiments of Incense

Mix equal amounts of the costly spices: stacte, onycha, galbanum, and pure frankincense, then add salt to make the mixture pure and holy. (Exodus 30:34)

The Scriptures tell us in Exodus 30 about the incense we are to offer, which speaks of our prayers and praise. Your prayers are incense to God. The frankincense represents thanksgiving. It is the opposite of myrrh, which means bitter. The Scripture says in 1 Timothy 2:1 that men everywhere should pray. He points out that we should offer prayers, requests, petitions and thanksgiving. He said, "I want men praying for people everywhere." Then he starts listing out: "For those in authority and rulers, and for all people." (1 Tim. 2:2-3)

Don't Forget the Frankincense!

If you are going to combine the four condiments of the incense and the four explanations given in 1 Timothy 2 from verse 1, you must have thanksgiving in your prayer concoction, or it is not acceptable incense to God. This is what Scriptures are for — for extracting truth. The Scriptures are given for correction, for instruction, for teaching, and for rebuke. So, however you take this, understand that the Scriptures were to tell you how to pray.

Scriptures say that you need those four things to make a proper concoction of incense. Look at Exodus 30; you will see the details about the incense. And then, look at 1 Timothy 2, the New Testament interpretation of that incense. Whenever people pray and make petitions asking God to help them, save them, deliver them, help them graduate, help them marry, or give them a job, and they don't mix it in with thanksgiving for what God has already done continually, then, their incense is not the incense God desires.

What Should We Give Thanks For?

1 Timothy 2 — for those in authority. Without them, there will be chaos. Look at the few times there is just a slight breakdown of law and order. Look at what happens when policemen run away from any place. In America, for months, cities were burning in May and June in 2020 because the police were attacked and they left. Crime broke out everywhere!

Libya had Muammar Gaddafi, a hard man who ruled for many years; a tough dictator. But when they removed him, Libya fell apart.

Editor's Note: The UN-backed government in the capital of Tripoli has very loose control of about a third of the country. To the east, Libya is controlled by a renegade general, General Haftar, leading the 'Libyan National Army' which has attempted to topple the government in Tripoli.

People were going to university for free when Gaddafi was around and enjoyed certain benefits. In other words, the relative stability and security they enjoyed during his rule is far better than the present situation – whatever else you think about him. In all those countries where they killed their leaders suddenly like that and it wasn't a transition of power, lawlessness broke out. You know how something happens to you and you can call the police? When there is no police, they can rape you to death, and nothing will happen, because nobody is coming (to help). This is what happens in lawless places.

Romans 13 tells you that the government is appointed by God for the purpose of maintaining order. So, even if there might be things they do or are not doing that you don't like, you shouldn't want them out of the picture – or there will be no law and order at all. And then, horrible things will happen, and no one will be there to help. But when there is even a semblance of government, there is a restriction on lawlessness or anarchy.

Be Intentional in Thanksgiving!

I have given you one reason why you should give thanks for authority. Give thanks always that there is a government. Give thanks! Venezuela experienced the same recession following the drop in prices of oil that we saw in Nigeria. But there, civil war broke out. In Nigeria, life continued. In Venezuela, the prices of things increased, sometimes as much as seventeen times more.

Picture a packet of milk. In Nigeria, they added 200 or 300 Naira, and you complained. In Venezuela, a packet of milk went from 1,100 to like 15,000 Naira at that time.

You literally have to search for things to give God thanks for if you are not on any such group that tracks good events. You have to make it a duty to find something. Look around. That is what I have done for years. You see people gathered here as we are now, and say, "I thank God that people can gather like this freely," because there was a time – in the 1990's – in these universities when cultism was so rife, and they killed people; you couldn't move. Some of you, you walk freely, going up and down. You don't understand. There were times you couldn't wear red or black on campus. "Come here! Why are you wearing our colours?!"

I want you to understand that there is always something to give thanks for. Do you agree? Give thanks always, in all things. Reject every temptation to complain and murmur. And that way, you can have a 'Judah Praise' all the days of your life.

As you enter your class, thank God that there is a lecturer – even if they come late. Thank God that there is a lecturer at all, that you don't have to read it all by yourself. Thank God that there are stairs to climb up to your class, that you didn't have to climb through a window.

Look for what to thank God for, so the praise will continue even after we've dispersed from here. Let praise go up here. Challenge your friends, Christians and even non-Christians, to give thanks. When you gather to pray about anything, give thanks. Spend time giving thanks.

Whatever it is you are praying about; give thanks for the version of that thing you have. Let people call you a fool. You are going to notice some people get very angry at you. Do you know why? It is demonic. People that don't mind when you grumble and complain can get very worked up when you are thankful for what good there is.

Don't just say, "Ah, they fixed this road from here to here. They fixed only three feet." Give thanks for those three! Don't say, "Look at the small place they patched. Rubbish people!" Don't do that. Give thanks for what's been done. Will you do this? Take the praise out, and the Lord will go with you.

Give Your Life in Thanks

If you haven't given your heart to Jesus, you are not using your life to thank the God who created you! Appreciate God that you are alive by giving Him your life. One reason why people will go to the lake of fire is because they did not praise God with their lives. You belong to someone. He created you for His pleasure, so you are like a thief. You stole your life and kept it, and called it, "My life." You actually opened your mouth and told someone, "It is my life." First, you were a thief, now you are a liar. It is not your life.

God created man and breathed the breath of life into him, and he became a living soul (Genesis 2:6). It is not your life. It is the life of God. John 1 says, "In Him was life, and His life is the light of men." This light lights every man that comes into the world. So, it is not your life. It is the life of God that you are partaking in! That is why, those who give their life to Christ are wise people. Those who keep it back are thieves and liars, and such people may go to the lake of fire if they don't repent.

On the first Sunday of the month, we went to the Awka Correctional Centre to hold a service for the Pentecostals. (Meetings there are divided into Catholic, Anglican and Pentecostal sessions at the Chapel, but at different periods. The Pentecostal meetings are the longest; from 11am to 1pm before lock-up). I shared that day on the topic, "Hope and The Goodness of God," as inspired by the Holy Spirit. After that, I made an altar call and two inmates came out to get born again.

One is an elderly man, who speaks very well. I learnt he was once staying outside the country before returning to Nigeria. Sadly, certain events occurred that led to his imprisonment. The second man had a very wonderful voice. He led the worship and praise sessions most of the time.

After that day, we didn't see the elderly man. When we asked, we were told that he had been released on amnesty! The second man, the worship/praise leader, also shared his testimony, that he would be released on bail the next Tuesday. Two more inmates also shared that they would be released within the week, and my heart skipped for joy at the good news.

Now, when we make altar calls, there are typically 15-35 inmates coming out to give their lives to Christ. Last Sunday, 19 people came out.

I take this as a very big sign that the Lord is with us, and our seeking the Lord over this ministry in prayer and fasting is not in vain.

I'm super excited. Praise God!

PROPHECY

The Two Princes

I saw two huge beings in the sky above the nation. One was full of light [he was an angelic prince], and he was at a point which I had the impression was the South Pole.

The huge branches of a tree were hanging over him like a canopy/umbrella. I had the impression that the tree was there to shield/hide him for a while. I don't think I have ever seen one in my life, but I had the impression that the branches of the tree were that of an oak tree.

The other being was so full of darkness that it was very difficult even to make out the outline of his figure. He was directly opposite the angelic prince, but at the other far end, which according to my impression, would be the North Pole. This dark figure was also a Prince — but a demonic one.

Bigger Battles Brewing

Now, these two huge beings [they stood about 7 to 8 feet tall] would soon engage in a battle that was part of a bigger war. But they could not yet engage until it was the right time.

Smoke-filled Bowls

I saw that each of them had in a bowl in his hands, and as I prayed, I saw that prayer went up into the bowl of the angelic prince like white smoke. Trickles of white smoke were also entering the bowl from other places. The bowl was about  $\frac{3}{4}$  [three quarters] full of white smoke.

Now, I saw that black smoke was filling the bowl of the demonic prince as well. When I first saw his own bowl, the black smoke was about  $\frac{1}{3}$  [one third] full; but the next time I had a glance at it, it was like I was seeing the smoke multiply itself within the bowl — and with such an awful speed! Suddenly, it was about five sixths [ $\frac{5}{6}$ ] full. There was no way to explain the exponential increase of the black smoke in the bowl. The black smoke which was trickling in from the nation could not suffice for such exponential increase.

Black Smoke Multiplied!

How could this be? It seemed that the prince whose bowl was filled first would be the one to initiate the battle, and would most likely have the upper hand. I began to understand that while the black smoke represented the prayers of those who were offering worship unto the Devil directly (witches, wizards, etc.), the multiplying effect was due to the indirect prayers of the blind and stubborn members of the Church who have become unknowing servants of the enemy — by their words, actions, obstinacy.

INDIRECTLY PRAYING TO

LADY NIGERIA: THE CAPTIVE MOTHER

The following panoramic vision was birthed during an ongoing season of prayer by the New Nigeria Prayer Group (NNPG), an offshoot of the GAM Watchmen, a body of disciples given to intercessory ministry with seer giftings often operating in visions, revelations and dreams. As we laboured in prayer for Nigeria, one of the sisters repeatedly saw our motherland over a period of many days as we were led to pray specifically. We present to you these words and admonitions in a multi-part series that will be continued in the next volume.

THE CAPTIVE MOTHER

I saw Nigeria in the form of a woman that formed the land. She was in the ocean among other countries, who were also like gigantic women. She stood knee-deep in the ocean. The countries had other beings leading them, which I understood to be principalities.

First, I looked for her belly. I wanted to see the stage of her pregnancy, but there was no visible pregnancy. I looked around and it seemed countries were lined up for judgment before a massive white being, whom I felt was God. However, Nigeria was far behind; she was weak. And the prince leading her wasn't taking her where she was meant to go.

As we prayed, we began to sing a song blessing aspects of Nigeria (such as businesses, churches, states, etc.) and these aspects appeared like spirits. They were like lights around her legs. However, there was one spirit remaining to be activated to give her strength. I heard that it was “the spirit of Nigeria”. She seemed to have given up on her people.

The principality leading her was formed by the nation's leaders over time. They had chained her. There was a staff between the principality and Nigeria, and when you looked down at the woman's feet under the water; it was chained to the staff they seemed to share. Nigeria was in bondage. It seemed we were to pray for a revival of her spirit.

I saw us taken away from there and the place was locked; we were not given access anymore. We were not prepared at the beginning of the prayer, so it seemed that a fierce angel with a notepad in his hands turned around and looked at us. We went back and were prepared. At the end, we were sent to prepare her so she could walk up and face God for judgment. She was not pregnant at this time, in my vision.

This preparation finished at the end of the prayer. We got access to the Gate that had been blocked.

The Yeast of Herod

Sunday 3rd February, 2019

(Excerpted from a message by Pastor Ita Udoh)

The Three Yeasts

"Be careful," Jesus said to them. "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."... "Then they understood that he was not telling them to guard against the yeast used in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees." (Mat 16:6,11)

"Be careful," Jesus warned them. "Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and that of Herod." (Mar 8:15)

Yeast makes dough rise; conveying the impression of something heavier and larger than its true mass. Jesus warned against the yeast of the Pharisees, the Sadducees, and Herod. What do these yeasts signify?

"... Jesus began to speak first to his disciples, saying: "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy." (Luk 12:1) The yeast of the Pharisees is hypocrisy.

They teach their followers one thing, but live differently from what they demand of others and pretend to do. In word and example, they emphasise keeping external appearances. On tithing, giving, promises, righteousness, oaths, speech, prayer, recognition, titles, piety, and just about all other areas of life and ministry. (Matthew 23)

"The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, and that there are neither angels nor spirits, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all." (Act 23:8)

The yeast of the Sadducees is their teaching that has a form of godliness, but denies the power thereof. They rejected the supernatural and held unbelief in all spiritual manifestations. They were the 'cessationists' of Jesus' day. Liberal and 'realistic', they loved power.

The yeast of Herod is the political spirit. Jesus described him as a fox; cunning (Luk 13:32). It plays to the gallery (Mat 14:3-10), seeking its own glory over God's (Act 12:21-23). They do not mind assassinating any competition, in character or literally.

A Little Leaven in the Lump

The yeast of Herod blows everything out of proportion, and it is not real. It has saturated the news and media, so you have a large number of Christians believing lies, and programmed to support someone that will act contrary to God's will. Why? You have eaten the yeast of Herod. You're corrupted by willfulness above God's desires or commands.

The yeast of Herod puts a wrong way of thinking into people's heads. When you see Christians supporting ungodly policies because the politician pushing it is from their ethnic derivation or refuse to see good in a leader who doesn't come from your tribe, or preferred political party, that is the yeast of Herod: the political spirit. Rather than accept a leader who exists within the will of the Lord as allowed by scripture, they yield to human factors and sentimentalism.

Your Choices Show Your Master

All of us, must ask ourselves, "What does God say about different issues?" If you find a person whose policies line up with the Bible, go with that person. We are supposed to judge things on their merits. Don't be carried away by traditions.

God's people are supposed to be free of this 'yeast'. You are supposed to walk in sincerity and truth. Jesus didn't just come with grace, but truth also! The moment you have to tell a lie, creating scenarios that are not real to drive your narrative, then, it is this yeast.

How Does God Judge Leaders?

In the Scriptures, there are things that God expects a ruler to do. One of them is to show mercy to the poor. "If a king judges the poor with fairness, his throne will always be secure." Pro 29:14

King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon wouldn't have been judged and reduced to a beast if he had carried out policies that helped the poor. (See Dan 4:10-37)

When Christians use mass media and the yeast of Herod to determine what they want from a leader, they completely ignore what the King of kings says He wants. They don't consider, according to scripture, if the present/incoming government is one that will care for the needs of the poor. If it is, support it. Is it going after wicked people? Is it the one that is doing and seeking justice? Is it making things fair? Is it working towards peace in the land? Support it.

Black Smoke and Mirrors

God kept showing us one of the things that the enemy did so thoroughly in this nation, to distort facts and make sure people don't hear any good thing about Nigeria. I remember a friend from Lagos saying in 2018, "If you were to ask what this present government has done in the last 3 years, there's not one good thing you can mention." I couldn't believe it!

In 2016, I had been added to a WhatsApp forum where they constantly posted completed federal and state projects and plans for Nigeria, and some were things that have never happened since Nigeria became a nation. But when the mass and social media propagates negative information and lies, people believe (or want to believe) all evil they are told. They post false content from the past or even other African countries, sometimes even francophone countries, and say it is 'happening in Nigeria right now'.

You cannot tell a lie to achieve a good aim. Can you do evil that good might come? You will pay for it. (Rom 3:8) If you have something to say, bring the truth. The devil is the father of lies. (John 8:44)

Faithful in Little, Faithful in Much!

If your heart is right and you are a REAL believer in the Bible, it is easy. The problem is that there are so many Christians who do not believe God's words. Sometimes, it's as easy as looking at the prospective leader's track record. What is this person known for? Luke 16:10 says that, "he that is faithful in little, will be faithful in much..." Did the person ever have opportunity to serve? How faithful were they?

Let's say two people are running for the office of Local Government

Chairman, and one is from your town but while Association President in your university, he was really very greedy and corrupt. The other you knew to be honest and faithful wherever he served. Should you vote for the corrupt person because he's from your village?

Don't you know that a little yeast permeates the whole batch of dough? Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch.... Therefore, let us observe the feast, not with old yeast or with the yeast of malice and evil but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 2 Corinth. 5:6-8

"Yeast must not be found in your houses for seven days..." Exo 12:19
